AMY RAPP

Amy,
You're a heck of a nice girl & ever since I've known you, you've been my friend. You're the kind of friend everyone wants & should have.
Watch out for some of those cowboys, they can get pretty wild!
Stay out of trouble & stay just the way you are.
Best of luck, forever!

"  " Love ya

Amy
To a neat woman - I'm glad that we are friends. Because you are really sweet.

Good Luck in everything you do.

Amy
you are a good looking girl and you should come over more often like you know I miss you from time to time well I must refrain from my writing to mail

Amy,
To my sweet little sister, I love you I really don't know what to say - but good luck in school (Z!!)
P.S. Tell J.B. I'm having fun with your brother Mom & Dad
I said Hi
Kevin

Brownie,
 Seven years is a long time. I've never lived in one place long enough to have a friend like you ever. I've lived to be a hundred I'll never find a better kind of person or friend than you. We went through "strange" teachers. Grade School Middle school and now over last four years have come. And even though we don't see each other much were still close friends. I'll end this book by saying your Super Amy (and have a super name) And I wish you the best in everything you do. Love ya

Amy,
 to one person that I really love to fight with, you just about laugh it off. Thanks for being a great friend. Love
 Michelle.

Amy,
 To a real new friend of mind that I like alot.
 I hope we can be friends for along time for school and

Amy,

To a really nice girl I ~~have~~^{have} been around for a long time, I know as well as you that we have had our differences but we have always seemed to work them out. I consider you a good friend and I think if any thing ever happend I could go to you or your family for help, good luck in all you do and please try to stay out of trouble. stay the way you are and you will go as far in life as anyone would hope. ^{to go} so good luck!

P.S. good luck

MARAUDERS "EASE ON DOWN THE ROAD" TO A VICTORY

Those serving on Queen Dianne McComas and King Jeff Flach's Homecoming court are Vicki Bangel, Chris Stunda, Pam Kuleff, Tim Dill, Traci Dalton, Brett Kelly, Natalie Flach, and Rob Roeder.

The Marauders added another victory to their record season by winning Homecoming against New Palastine 20 to 0.

Highlights of the evening included the crowning of Queen Dianne McComas and King Jeff Flach, the spectacular performance by the band and pom-pon girls, and the winning floats of the Junior class and club.

Sleigh Ride

The Sunshine Society held its annual Snow Whirl on December 18, 1979, in the high school cafeteria. The evening climaxed when Sherri Rice was crowned queen by Sheryl Varnell, the 1978 Snow Whirl queen.

The New Palestine High School Dance Band was the featured band for the evening.

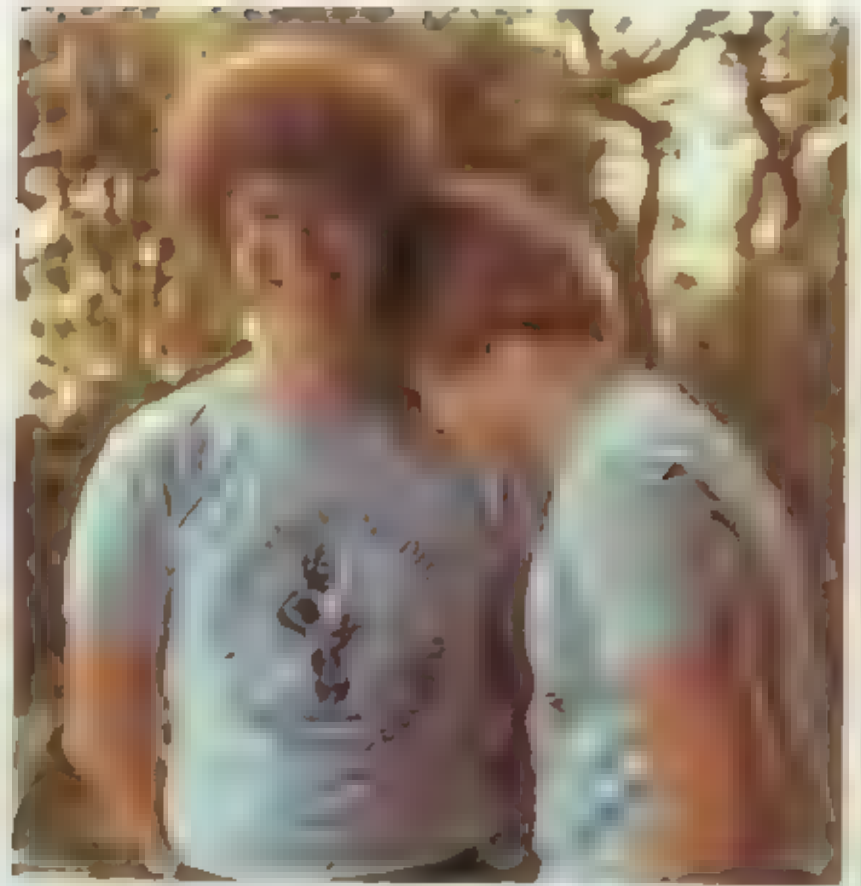

To the Stars

Marauders

With the help of the American Institute of Foreign Study and Mrs. Janet Sherwood, our M. A. students were able to tour Europe during the summer of '79. They were Kevin Berk, Dave Duro, Michael, Gail Massey, Maria Nopemberger, Yessie Pashkova, Lynn Rockha, and Jan Swerney. Sponsor of the group was Mrs. Sherwood, also accompanying the group was Mrs. McIn.

Tour Europe

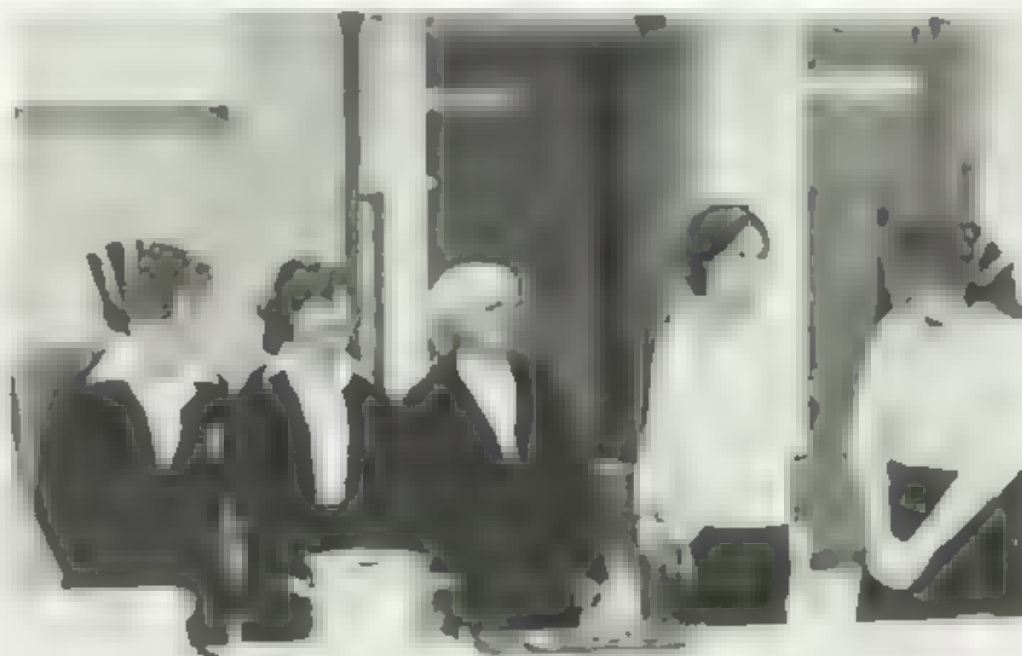

The tour included the following: England, Belgium, The Netherlands, France, Switzerland, and Italy.

FHA and Drama Club Combine Forces

The Drama Club presented two plays, The Patchwork Quilt by Rachel Field and Who Am I This Time? by Kurt Vonnegut in conjunction with a dinner prepared by girls from the FHA club. The sponsors of the two clubs respectively are Mrs. Lowder, and Mrs. Colvard.

Rhapsody in Gold and Black

On November 23, 1979, the Choir presented Rhapsody in Gold and Black. The music filled the air and the audience left with a song in their hearts. There were also several solos and duets that showed the skill of each performer.

Marauders Victorious at

The 1979-80 Winter Homecoming was a success. The Marauders were victorious over Westfield 53 to 47. The highlights of the evening were the crowning of queen Sherri Rice and King Matt Jenkins and the dance afterwards featuring "Phoenix" as the band of the night.

Under New Management

In the fall of 1979, Mt. Vernon was visited by a group called "Under New Management." They sang country, rock and gospel songs. They also worked up a 50's routine and put it on for us. It seemed everyone had a good time.

The Stars

The 1980 Extravaganza, with the theme "Weekend with the Stars" left no room for competition as the whole show was the highlight.

Dances by the pom-pom girls were done to the songs "There's No Business Like Show Business." Theme from "Chips," Theme from "Vegas," "Dallas," "Championship," and the Senior girls went together to surprise the audience with their dazzling skills in "K-Gee."

Some specialties of the Band were "El Dorado (a salute to the Duke), Star Trek, and Walt Disney Overture.

We certainly can't forget the fantastic singing of Barry Stadler in his rendition of the Bologna Song.

If you were in the Saturday night audience, then you remember the special attention you received when the fuse of the television went out during the William Tell Overture (the Lone Ranger Theme) as TV Repairman Tom Stadler took special care in fixing the TV and getting the show on the road again.

Oklahoma Wind

On April 10, 11, 12 of 1980, the Choir presented "Oklahoma." The musical, starring Sharon Dolby, Mike Ratliff, Carol Cochard, John Anderson, Dana Napier, and Becky McIntyre, was a complete success!

Even though the Mt. Vernon Varsity Basketball Team suffered through a dismal 5-16 season, first year coach, Steve Leonard remains optimistic. Coach Leonard believes the Marauder Basketball Program has now "turned the corner" and that the basketball future looks bright for Old Gold and White fans.

Though the Mt. Vernon roundballers lose four fine senior players in Chris Stunda, Toby Schauer, Jeff Flach, and Jeff Collins, the Marauders will return next year with seven lettermen who accounted for more than three-fourths of the scoring and two-thirds of the Marauder rebounding this season.

FINN LIE DAY

1980

February 22, 1980, was named Finn Lee Day. Finn was honored with a certificate. He had lunch with the Student Council, and at the basketball game that evening, the Norwegian National Anthem was played along with the Star-Spangled Banner. Good Luck, Finn, in the future!

Success

To laugh often and much; to win respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition, to know even one life has breathed easier because you lived. This is to have succeeded.

JAMES E. STRUNK

"No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main . . . Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind . . ." John Donne

We will remember Mr. Strunk as a social studies teacher, as the driver of the sports team bus, and the man selling tickets for the athletic contests. But most of all, we will remember him as a friend.

James E. Strunk

James E. Strunk, 50, Route 1, Fortville, died Saturday night in Community Hospital, Indianapolis

A teacher at Mount Vernon High School, he came to Fortville 7 years ago from Terre Haute

Born Sept. 11, 1929 in Owen County, Ind., he served in the U.S. Air Force from 1947-52, reaching the rank of master sergeant

He was a member of the Fortville Optimists Club

Survivors include his wife, Anita Strunk; two sons, Aaron Strunk and Michael Strunk, at home; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Evans, Fredericksburg, Va.; his father, Robert Strunk, Spencer; two brothers, Theodore Strunk, Homewood, Ill. and Tommy L. Strunk, Indianapolis; two sisters, Mrs. Thelma Woolard, Mooresville and Mrs. Mildren Collier, Spencer; and two grandchildren

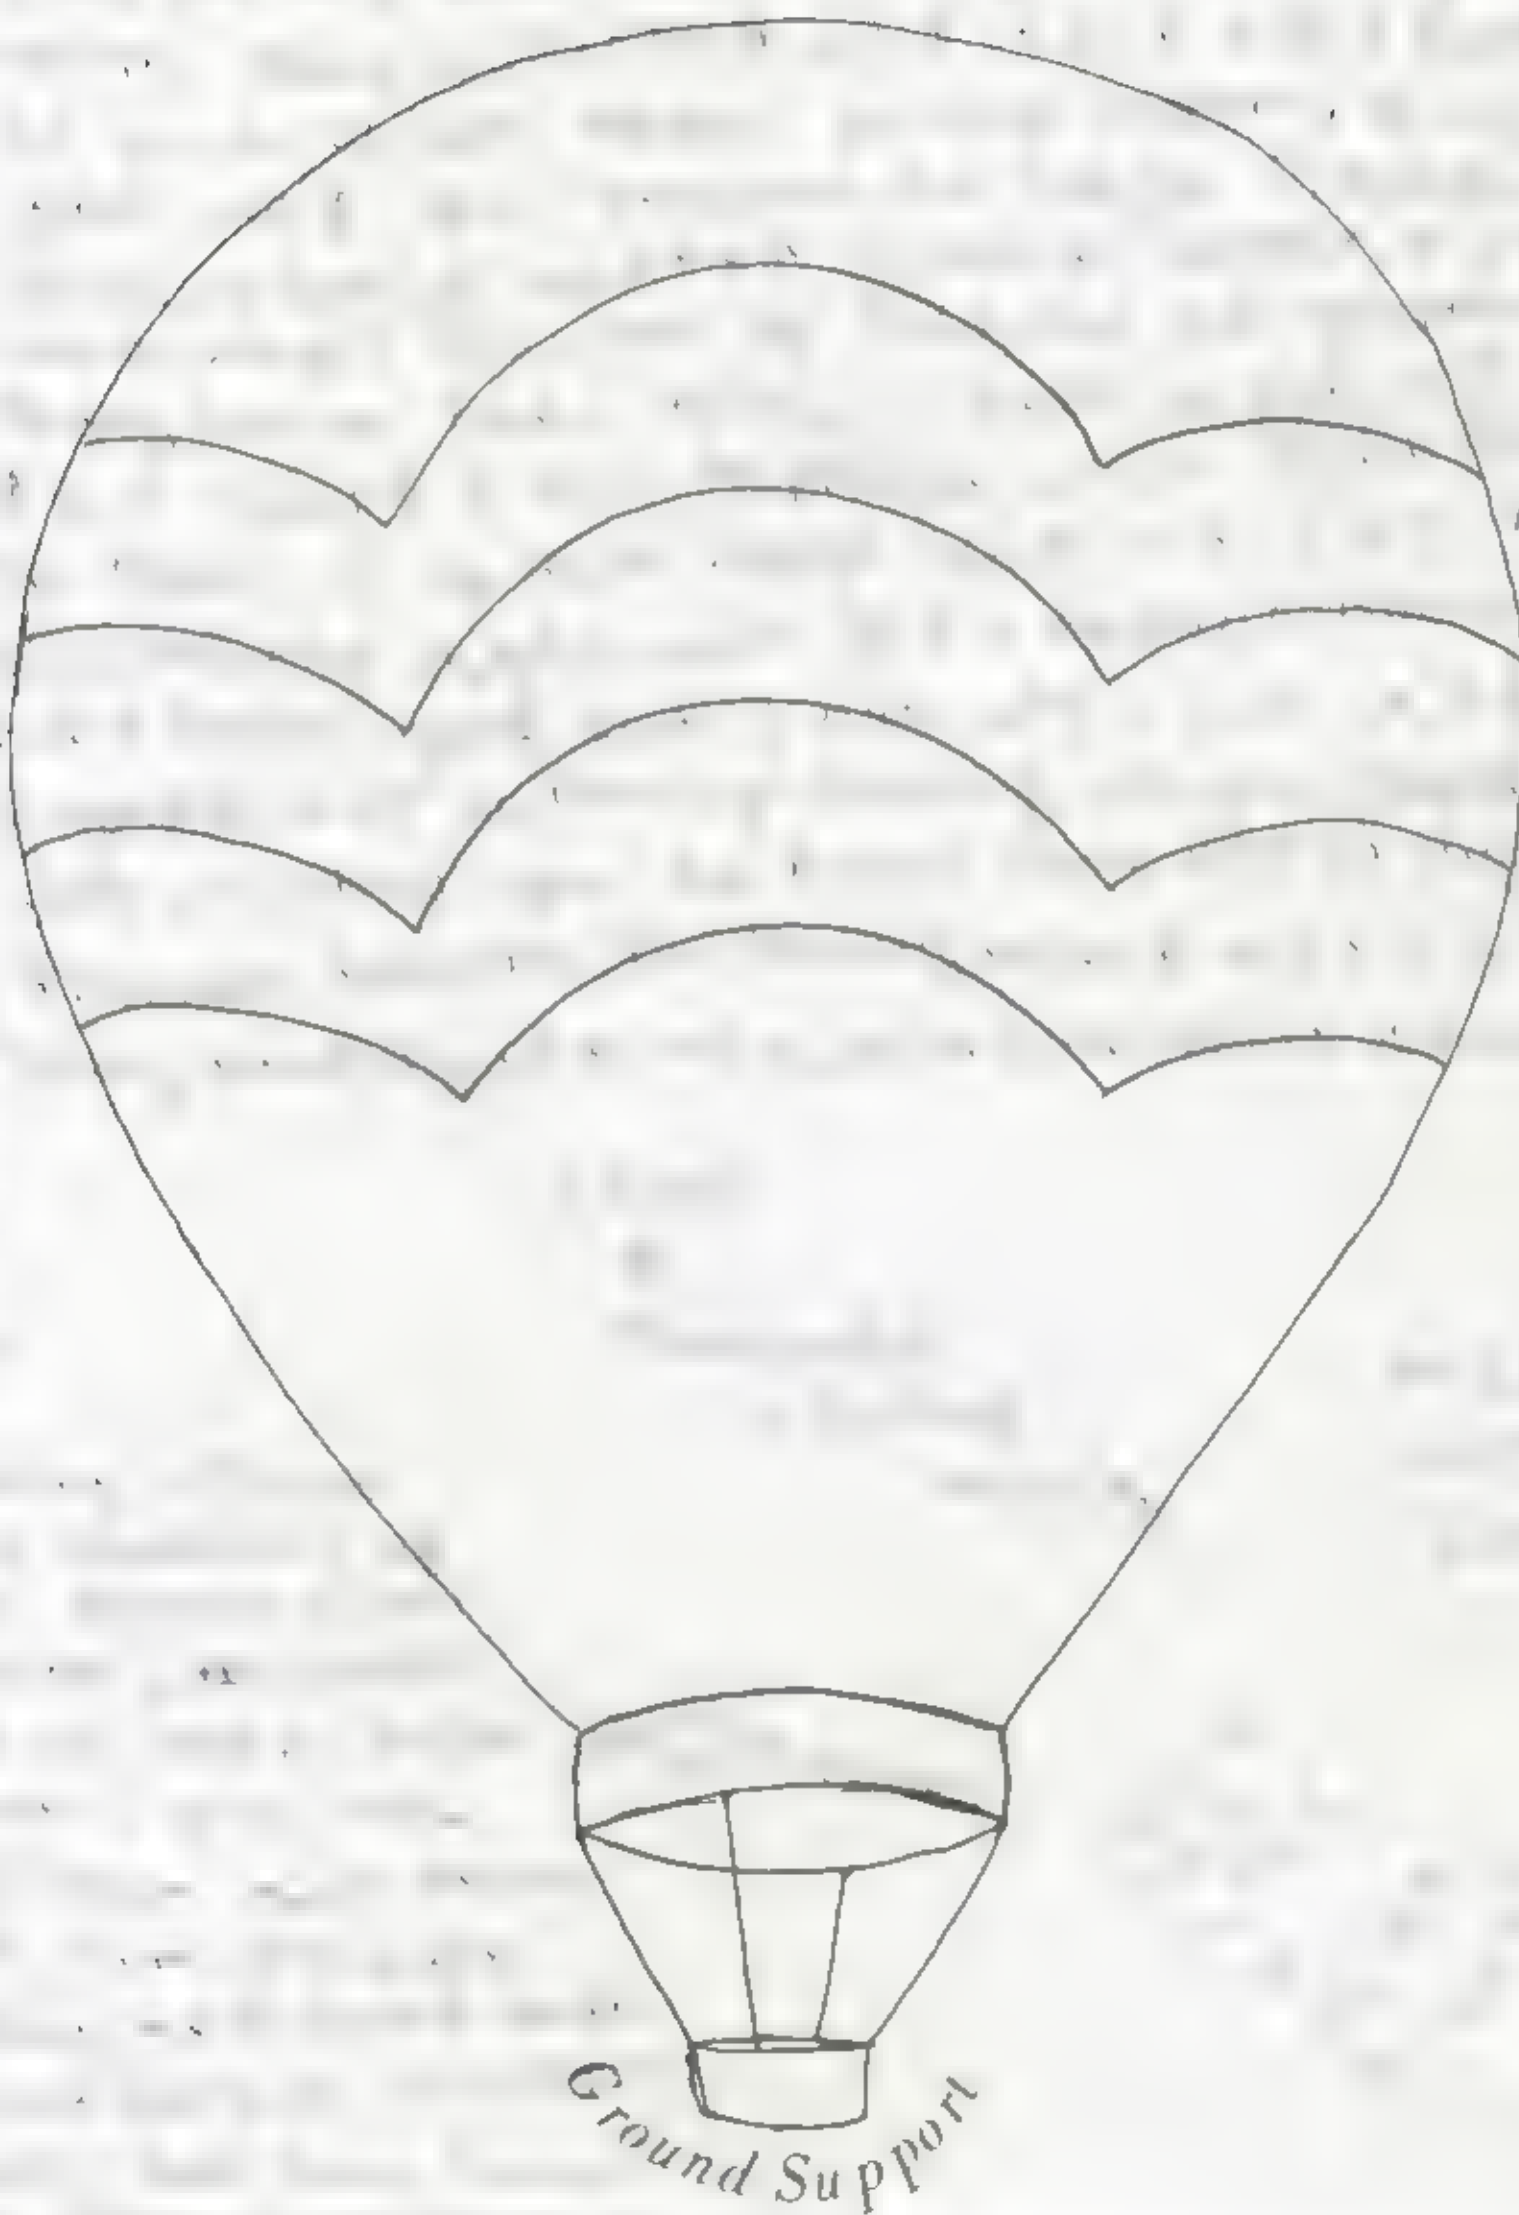

Services will be at 10 a.m.

Tuesday at Fisher Funeral Home, Fortville, with the Rev. Larry Schwarz officiating. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery, Spencer

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. today

(Amy, well, what can say that hasn't already been said. You & I have been great friends ever since way back in elementary school. Whenever I've had a problem I knew I could always come to you cause you'd have an open ear. I knew if I had something to get off my chest but yet didn't want to many people to know, you were the person could trust. Amy: I love ya as much as if you were my own sister & I always will. So I hope you have all the luck in the world & I hope you get everything out of life that you want.

Love,
 Faith & Laughter,

Amy,
is a girl who is in my Latin class and is a good friend.
You are fun to talk to.
I even thought it gets me in trouble but I don't mind because I have fun talking to you and Good luck always and have fun with whoever you like now and for ever. Love, -pe
P.S. do bad your Mike

Amy,
What can I say?
You are the sweetest friend I have! You help me through problems, and I, try to help you too.
I'm glad you're! We've had many good times.
And I've met some people from different schools because of you! (who do I have left? I want a melody) Good luck with your horse! I wish you all the luck in the world with your horses for I know they're the clearest thing to you!

Your friends
